Sending His people out into the world to spread the good news. What would the world around us look like if we were committed to being a sent people? ~ Pastor Tyson

Holly Starr: Real. That is the word that inspired Holly Starr to be the artist she is: honest, passionate, and personal. The daughter of an onion-farmer, Starr began writing songs at a young age as a means to share Christ with her small-town community of friends. Now at 28 (and married), her passion for people has remained the heartbeat of her music. Over ten years and five albums later, Starr has traveled the country encouraging people to have faith both when times are easy and when times are hard.

We are so excited to have Holly and her team with us next Sunday, May 19th!
