Westland Free Methodist Church ~ westlandfmc.com ~ November 28, 2021

The song "O Holy Night" is a timeless Christmas classic. This advent season we'll break down different sections of the song each week. Together we'll explore how Christmas is all about God breaking through the darkness with His light of hope, peace, and love. May that be our experience this Christmas season! ~ Pastor Tyson

Praise and Worship Songs:

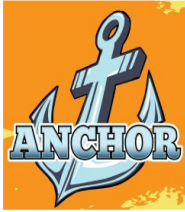

*Come Thou Long Expected Jesus, We Have a Savior,
King of Kings, O Come O Come Emmanuel, and, God with us*

Come Join Us!

During this Advent Season, we will be providing luminaries "In memory of" a loved one/ones.

You are welcome to write on a luminary the names of the loved ones you are remembering this Christmas season.

These will be used to decorate the church on Christmas Eve.

Luminary bags are located in the lobby.

October 31, 2021 Report

Year To Date:

$ 207,777 Budget & Missions Received
$ 215,221 Expenditures YTD

Please pray for our year-end giving to meet our financial needs this year.

Thank you for your giving.

Our Harvest Offering will go towards Phase One of the renovations at the Warren Road facility:

- New flooring, paint, tech equipment, and more to convert the fellowship hall to a children's ministry and preschool wing.
- A new wall to allocate space for toddlers adjacent to the nursery and a new doorway to connect the two rooms.
- New flooring and paint in the youth room.
- Taking out two walls, and new flooring in a portion of the current gym to open up that room more for youth, outside groups, and fellowship.
- New lighting and paint in the sanctuary.

10% of the offering will be tithed to
The Detroit Initiative and the Jiran Collective.
