Between shopping, gift wrapping, and attending holiday events, it is easy to get lost in the frenzy of the season. But there is more to Christmas than the rush and stress. Bring your whole family for a night of candles, carols, and reflection to rediscover the hope and wonder of the true meaning of Christmas.

Service begins @ 6 pm, December 24, at Westland FMC on Venoy Road

We are making great progress on Phase One of the renovations at the Warren Road facility:

- We have new flooring, paint, and walls to convert the fellowship hall to a children's ministry and preschool wing. New tech equipment to come.
- We have a new wall to make a toddler room adjacent to the nursery and a new doorway to connect the two rooms. Next is painting the room and the bathroom.
- We've taken out two walls to open up the gym for the youth, other groups, and fellowships, and put in a new floor. Painting the youth room comes next.
- We've added new lights with new wiring in the sanctuary to enhance the stage.

Thank you to all who have worked at Warren Road to prepare the facility for ministry to those who attend, and for outreach to those who have yet to hear the good news: Jesus offers Hope, Peace, Joy, Love and Salvation!

*During this Advent Season, and write the names of the
