Prayers this week:

Our Michigan Free Methodist Church as all 3 conferences meet together with our Bishop on Friday and Saturday, to hear the word of the Lord, to conduct church business, and to foster relationships in the family of God, coming together so we can go out and share the Good News in word and in deed.

Our teens and leaders, and thousands of others going to FMYC in Colorado, as they are preparing and leaving next weekend. Safety, friendships, learning and growing in their relationship with God as they unite with others in the same Spirit, and see first-hand serving in Free Methodist Ministries.

Updates on our off-campus multiplication opportunities

Jefferson Barnes Dinner Church

We are working to re-launch in September, and helping with their planned events this summer:
Movie Night, Fri. Aug 12
Back-to-School-Bash, Sat. Aug 13.

Ashford Court,

a Senior Retirement Community, that has pleaded with us to launch a church service:
Our team held the first service on June 16, to the glory of God!

God is doing awesome things through us! We invite you to join us in prayer for these opportunities, and if you'd like more information on how you can be a part of either one, please reach out to Pastor Andy - andy@westlandfmc.com.

Rodrigo and Tanya Rosado will be here at Westland FMC next Sunday, June 26

The Rosados are FM missionaries preparing to serve in Argentina. One aspect will be giving leadership to a new project, The Harbor, which seeks to be a vibrant international community where there is biblical transformation and where student leaders are empowered through holistic strategies to multiply committed disciples in Buenos Aires and Latin America.
