- I/We want to know more about WFMC.

Jesus is ushering in the Kingdom of God which flips the power dynamics and human understanding of our world upside down... or rather, right-side up. And in so doing, Jesus' closest followers found their understanding of Jesus, and what he meant for their lives, completely turned upside down as well. This morning, we're going to lean in and invite Jesus to do the same in any area of our lives or understanding of him, where we are still approaching life from a worldly point of view rather than a Kingdom of God point of view. ~ Pastor Andy

Praying Together

Taking time out of the day to pray together for specific breakthroughs.

Let us come together and cry out to the Lord - to move in us.

In this particular setting we are not praying for people outside of our community.

We are lifting up our people to walk in freedom, through the Holy Spirit, and crying out for God to move among us.

If God does a work in us, the world will notice and the Kingdom impact around us will increase more and more because we are letting God move IN us.
