Many of us enjoy eating. And an invitation to share a meal with someone, whether in their home or in a restaurant, is deeply meaningful. Did you know Jesus liked eating, and eating with people too? So much so that his accusers called him a drunkard and a glutton (which was a false accusation). This morning, we're going to look at a story from Luke's gospel where Jesus attends a dinner party, and while at the dinner party, tells 2 parables about other dinner parties. Together, we'll discover both some practical advise, as well as deeper meaning regarding being invited into Jesus Kingdom. ~ Pastor Andy
